This public event is presented annually so civilians and veterans can express their appreciation to men and women volunteers currently serving on Active Duty, or in Reserve or National Guard components.

Employers that have employees serving in uniform are encouraged to sponsor a table and ask those employees and family members to attend to be recognized.

If you cannot attend the event but will financially sponsor a part of it, BMAC will invite uniformed military members to attend at no cost to them.

Your sponsorship will directly benefit our troops (see Tables for Troops Sponsorship Packages).
